MARTIN'S RENTMEESTERIJ: MODERN-DAY COMFORT IN A UNIQUE SETTING

Martin's Rentmeesterij is a 4-star hotel in the heart of the Commandery Alden Biesen, a beautifully preserved historical site in Bilzen. As befits Martin's Hotels, this hotel too combines the authentic with the modern.

The Steward's Home is an exceptionally well preserved heritage building, built in the 17th century in Maasland style. It once served as the home of the Steward of Alden Biesen, who managed the buildings when the Commander was not there.

Martin's Rentmeesterij offers an exclusive experience in which culture, history, gastronomy, relaxation and a pleasant stay go hand in hand. 72 rooms, authentic salons, a restaurant, a delightful terrace, a bar, 3 conferencing and banquet rooms: strong suits aplenty that make Martin's Rentmeesterij eminently suited as the venue of choice for hosting your meetings and/or events! There is also a wellness area with a swimming pool. The hotel overlooks an alluring courtyard and extensive, wooded gardens.

ALDEN BIESEN: SO MUCH IN 1 CASTLE

Alden Biesen's history got under way in 1220 with the establishment of the regional Commandery of the Teutonic Order. This province of the Teutonic Order in the land of Maas and Rhine was divided into twelve bailiwicks. Alden Biesen waxed to become the headquarters of the bailiwick of Biesen, administered by the local Commander.

The castle had its heyday was between the 16th and the 18th century. The Commandery then became the luxury residence as we know it today. At the end of the 18th century, the French Revolution put an end to this, as the Teutonic Order was ousted. The castle complex was sold at a public auction.

After the fire of 1971, the Belgian State bought the Alden Biesen site. Nowadays, the Commandery is an international cultural centre. Alden Biesen now serves as the stand-out that hosts a whole range of high-profile events.
